Science is in focus

Lab life, experiments, coding chaos, the beauty of microscopy
—whatever captures your science world!

Science is on pause

Coffee breaks, outdoor walks, after-work hobbies
—whatever makes us, researchers, human♥♥

Submit up to one photo per category (JPG or PNG, 1920×1080 px) by 16.05.2025 to dpm@uef.fi with the subject “FoHS Photocontest”. Include the category (in focus/on pause) and a title for each picture!

The images will be displayed during the FoHS Doctoral Researcher Symposium on 20.5.2025 in the lobby area of Snellmania campus.

During the event, participants will vote for their favourite images!

Bring your views and share what you see when you're in focus, as well as the importance of pausing.
